Fort Philipe. A: This problem appears to be a known problem when a project list is opened in a different tab. Opening the project list in a different tab appears to fix the issue. Just keeping this here in case someone else runs into the same issue. Firefly made more money in its first 12 months of being on Facebook than Twitter, despite Firefly not doing very well on Twitter. The company behind the popular Firefox-like browser bundle, which includes the massively popular browser extension, made $26 million in the 12 months ending October 31, 2010. The company made around $35 million in the same time period the previous year, and $13 million in the two year period prior to that. These numbers come from the company's IPO documents. Not surprisingly, Firefox is the company's biggest product. Its other business is Service Revenue, which includes various "loyalty," "affinity" and "association" revenue streams, as well
